

DATE 4.4.23

2 Working with Message box and write line.

Write line - It prints a string to the output panel. It is present in the activity panel.

Message Box - Displays a message or string on the screen and is Attended in nature i.e involves human interaction.

- 1 Click on the process button and create a process. After creating a process a ~~new~~ page will open.

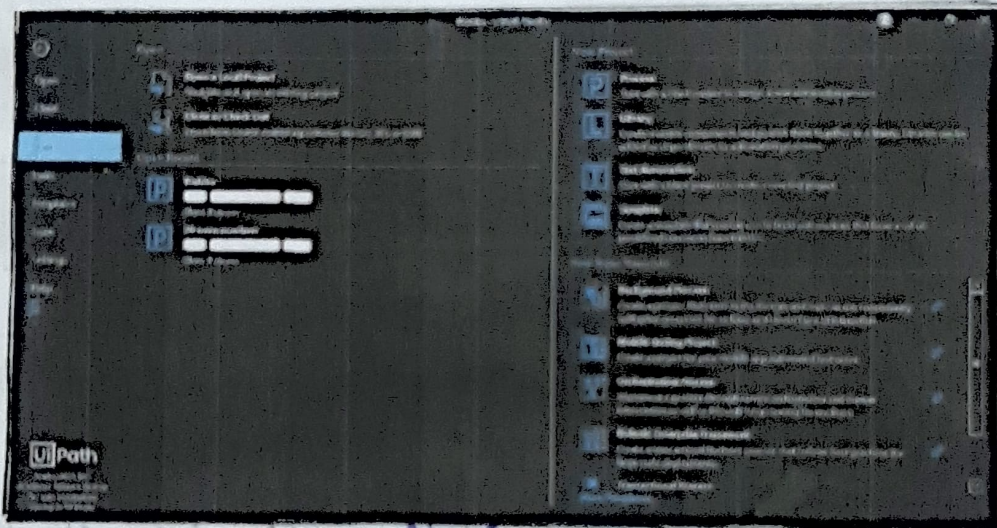

fig 1

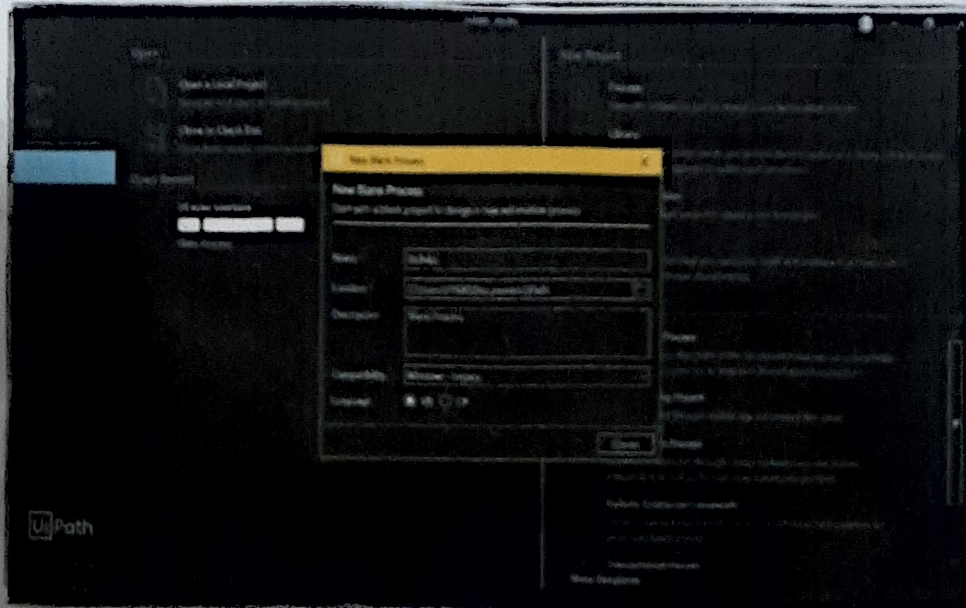

fig 2

DATE.....

2. After creating a process go to menu and create a sequence and name that sequence.

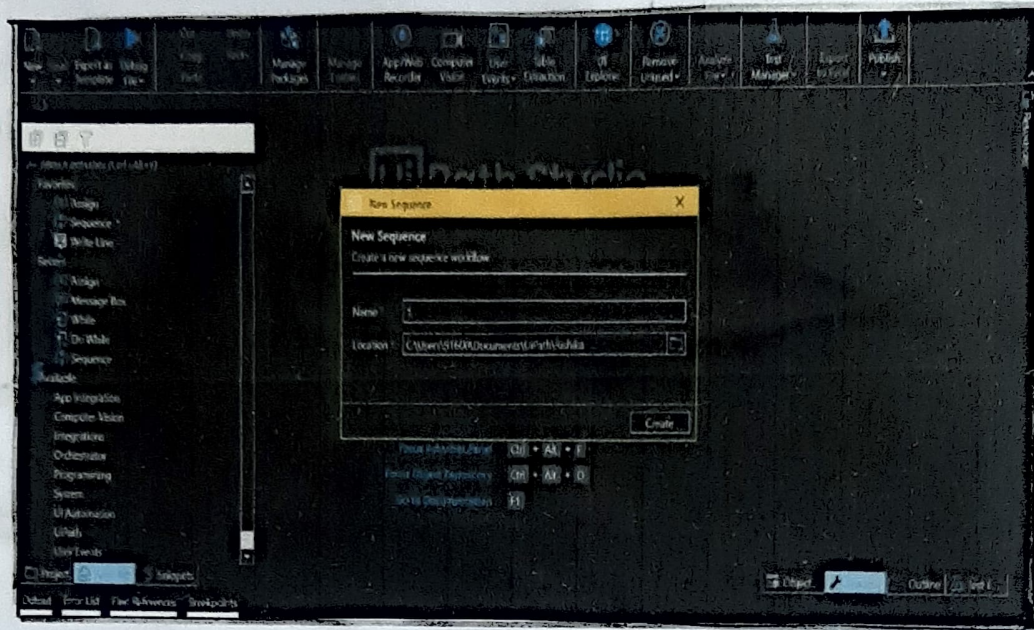

fig-3

- 1 Message Box - Go to activities and search for message box and drag it to the sequence and then write a message in " " and go to ribbon and click on the arrow under debug file and click run file and a message will be displayed with the specified text and button options.

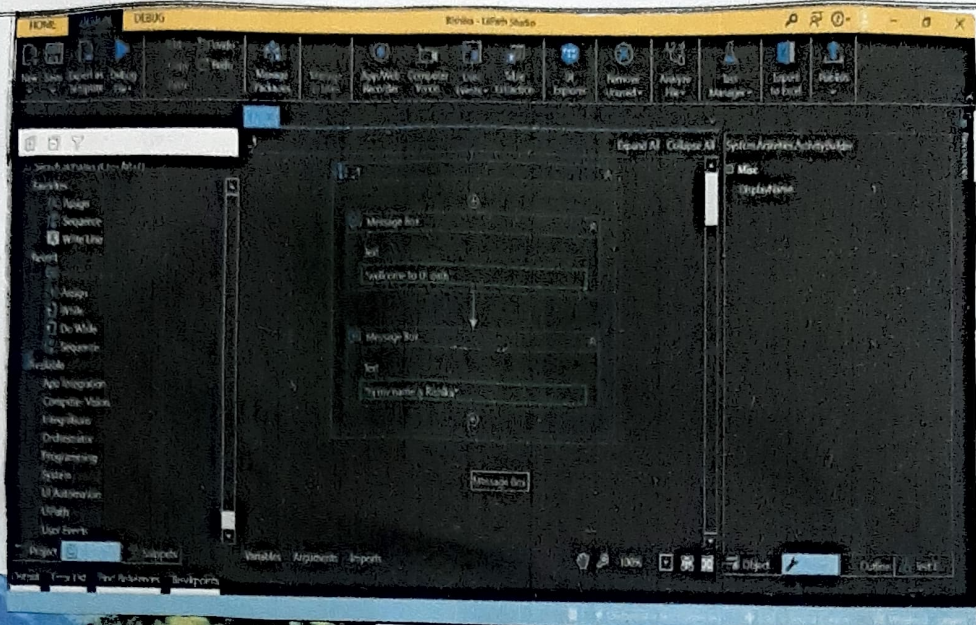

fig-4

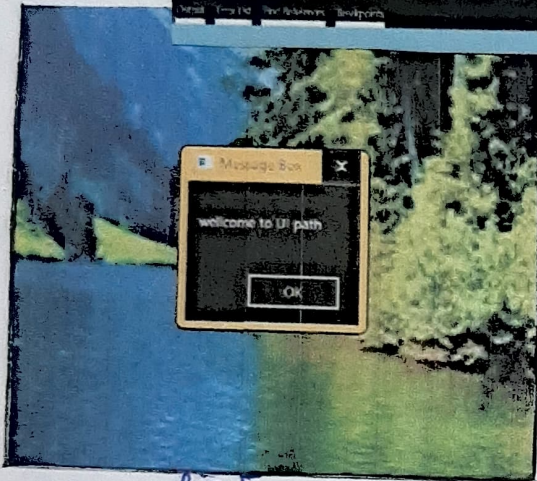

fig 5

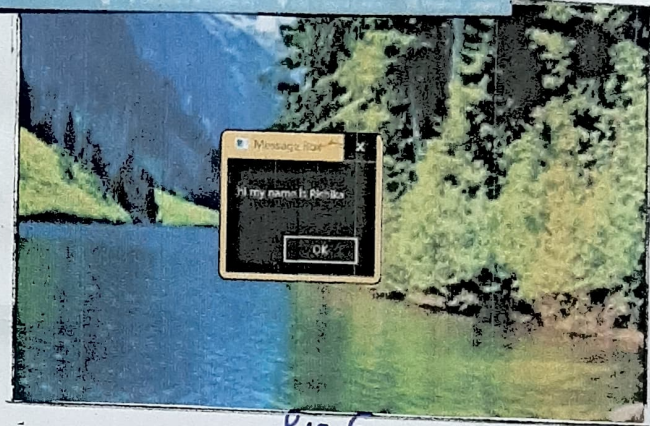

fig 6

2. Write line Go to activities and search for write line and drag it to the sequence tab and then write a string or the value of a string variable and go to ribbon and click on the arrow under debug file and click run file and then a string or the value of a string variable will be displayed to the output panel.

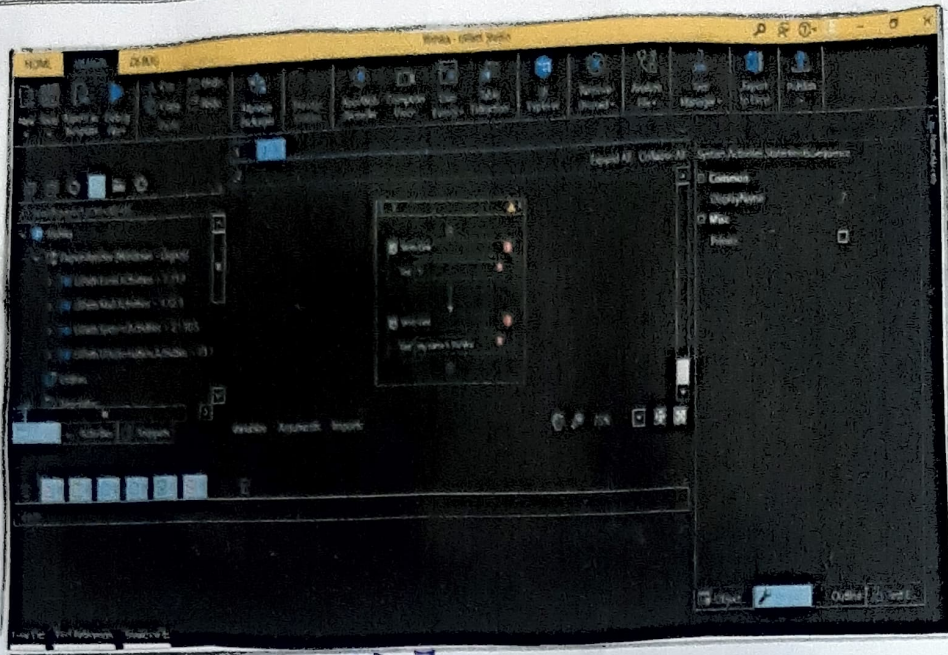

fig 7

By using the above steps you can work with message Box and write line.